

AWWA/WEA SPOUSE'S PROGRAM

Monday, May 18, 2008

10:00-12:00

Heritage Farm and Museum Tour

Step back in time with a guided adventure into days gone by -- a time of one-room schoolhouse, blacksmith shops, country stores and log homes.

A guided tour of the Heritage Farm Museum, Village tours of the Museum of Progress, Museum of Transportation and the Country Store Museum. "Stroll through up to 16 different buildings experiencing life as it was "back then" and learning about the major inventions that changed everything to create the quality of life we take for granted today."

12:00-1:30

Lunch at Central City Café

Homestyle cookin' café with something on the menu to please everyone, and homemade desserts.

1:30-3:00

Old Central City

You will enjoy 3 blocks of shopping in Old Central City. Antique, specialty shops, gift shops, an Amish market, museums, farmers market, arts and crafts, and more.

Tuesday May 19, 2008

10:00-12:00

Le Cooke Store

We'll stroll down to Pullman Square and cross the street to take in a cooking demonstration. Sure to be a highlight of our day!

Rocco's Little Italy

12:00-1:30

A fantastic menu of Italian specialties, including homemade pasta, fresh bread, and much more.

Pullman Square

1:30-?

We'll be at your leisure for the rest of the day. The hotel is just a short distance away so feel free to stay at Pullman Square and shop at one of their many shops (Chico's, Empire Books, Inspired, Heels, Merle Norman, Runway Couture), or grab some ice cream at Cold Stone Creamery, or head back to the hotel for that much longed for siesta.
